Past Announcement

- July 23rd, 2021 -

We are thrilled to announce the Fiber Fusion Planning Committee met and voted unanimously to hold Fiber Fusion 2021.

To be clear, it will be a unique year. Our community includes many high risk members and we want your help in protecting our fiber family. Therefore, we will be making the following changes.

- All participants will be required to wear a mask, regardless of vaccination status. Spinning circles and fiber art gathering tables will be removed. Food and drink will be restricted to the outside seating areas.

We moved to larger buildings to give us some additional space, so you can have all of the other things you've come to love at Fiber Fusion.

- Event Center, Shop Vendors galore, a Fiber Arts Show, and Demos. Pavilion: Find the Fleece Show & Sale, Used Equipment Sales, Live Fiber Animals, even more Demos, and the all new 'Spinner's Dream' Rabbits Show. 4-H Building: Classes will be back in full force.

Join us to reconnect with old friends and make some new ones on October 16th & 17th, 2021 at the Evergreen State Fairgrounds in Monroe, WA as we get together, celebrate natural fiber, and revel in our fiber community.

Reminder: All policies subject to change due to unforeseen circumstances. We will continue to follow all policies set forth by Washington State, Snohomish County, Evergreen State Fairgrounds, and the CDC.

Please Welcome our New Planning Team Volunteers!

Fiber Arts Coordinator

Beth Cachat

Beth Cachat has been knitting for over 60 years. Since she began in the dark ages of nothing but acrylic, you can imagine her joy at all the beautiful yarn options out there now. She also spins, weaves and rescues dogs.

Live Fiber Animal Coordinator

Rhonda Wreggelsworth

Rhonda Wreggelsworth lives in Stanwood, WA on her farm, Rimini's Stilly River Ranch, where she raises Angora goats, alpacas, sheep, and random other critters. She works with her own fiber and enjoys some natural dyeing. Rhonda raised her kids in 4-H and has been the leader of Fiber Feather & Friends 4-H for many years. Her club has been a great supporter of Fiber Fusion and we look forward to working with her as the Fiber Animal Coordinator.

Sponsorship Coordinator

Cathei Baynes

We will introduce Cathei with more details on our next Newsletter along with some new sponsorship information!
